104TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 42

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 19 (legislative day, SEPTEMBER 5), 1995

Received and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

DECEMBER 12, 1995

Reported by Mr. HELMS, without amendment

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Supporting a resolution to the long-standing dispute regarding Cyprus.

Whereas the long-standing dispute regarding Cyprus remains unresolved;

Whereas the military occupation by Turkey of a large part of the territory of the Republic of Cyprus has continued for over 20 years;

Whereas the status quo on Cyprus remains unacceptable;

Whereas the United States attaches great importance to a just and peaceful resolution of the dispute regarding Cyprus;

Whereas the United Nations and the United States are using their good offices to resolve such dispute;

Whereas on January 5, 1995, President Clinton appointed a Special Presidential Emissary for Cyprus;

Whereas the United Nations has adopted numerous resolutions that set forth the basis of a solution for the dispute regarding Cyprus;

Whereas United Nations Security Council Resolution 939 of July 29, 1994, reaffirms that a solution must be based on a State of Cyprus with a single sovereignty and international personality, and a single citizenship, with its independence and territorial integrity safeguarded, and comprising two politically equal communities as described in the relevant Security Council resolutions, in a bicommunal and bizonal federation, and that such a settlement must exclude union in whole or in part with any other country or any form of partition or secession;

Whereas the United Nations Secretary General has described the occupied part of Cyprus as one of the most highly militarized areas in the world;

Whereas the continued overwhelming presence of more than 30,000 Turkish troops on Cyprus hampers the search for a freely negotiated solution to the dispute regarding Cyprus;

Whereas the United Nations and the United States have called for the withdrawal of all foreign troops from the territory of the Republic of Cyprus; and

Whereas comprehensive plans for the demilitarization of the Republic of Cyprus have been proposed: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That the Congress—

1 (1) reaffirms that the status quo on Cyprus is
2 unacceptable;

3 (2) welcomes the appointment of a Special
4 Presidential Emissary for Cyprus;

5 (3) expresses its continued strong support for 6 efforts by the United Nations Secretary General and 7 the United States Government to help resolve the 8 Cyprus problem in a just and viable manner at the 9 earliest possible time;

10 (4) insists that all parties to the dispute regard-
11 ing Cyprus agree to seek a solution based upon the 12 relevant United Nations resolutions, including Secu-
13 rity Council Resolution 939 of July 29, 1994;

14 (5) reaffirms the position that all foreign troops
15 should be withdrawn from the territory of the Re-
16 public of Cyprus;

17 (6) considers that ultimate, total demilitariza-
18 tion of the Republic of Cyprus would meet the secu-19 rity concerns of all parties involved, would enhance 20 prospects for a peaceful and lasting resolution of the 21 dispute regarding Cyprus, would benefit all of the 22 people of Cyprus, and merits international support;
23 and

24 (7) encourages the United Nations Security
25 Council and the United States Government to con-

1 sider alternative approaches to promote a resolution
2 of the long-standing dispute regarding Cyprus based
3 upon relevant Security Council resolutions, including
4 incentives to encourage progress in negotiations or 5 effective measures against any recalcitrant party.

Passed the House of Representatives September 18, 1995.
